The new outdoor sign of the Church

The original outdoor sign of the church had been erected for more than a decade and it was planned to replace it as part of the refurbishment and extension project of the church four years ago. It has taken a year's time to re-erect the outdoor sign as a matter of structural compliances.

The new sign retains the original colour scheme and font type. The message in Chinese "Jesus in Temple Street" is more prominently shown. The sign succinctly told the message Pastor Sam Lai, the founder of the Church, received when he passed Temple Street. It is "As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it" (Luke 19:41). Temple Street is Jerusalem, and Jesus is coming to Yau Ma Tei, to Temple Street. Yau Ma Tei was seen as a crime den at that time. Fuk Lam Church is here to bring love and mercy to this place through the gospel.

Surpass “Here is good”

Pastor Chung raised, “Good Friday is for the remembrance of Jesus’s suffering. Do not forget the great mission. The Church here is not enough to give everyone a good feeling and complacency. We are to serve the neighbourhood for the glory of God. The Church here is to be an influential community church.”

A Wall-less Church

The Public Square at Yau Ma Tei is a favourite gathering spot of street-sleepers. Every Saturday afternoon at 3 o’clock, the Church will give free coffee to “kai fong” (people living in the neighbourhood). While drinking, we chat and sing with them and pray for them. Often, ten or more kai-fong turn out and it is a good opportunity to share the gospel with them.

Marriage Boot Camp 2017

Love Camp for Married Couples from the Mainland

The May just passed witnessed the first love camp for married couples from the mainland being organised in Fuk Lam Church. The camp, with twenty plus married couples of different length of marriage, lasted three days and two nights. It was a rare opportunity for them to gather together to learn, understand and share the meaning of marriage and the way to treat each other in marriage and what the Bible teaches on matrimony. These couples relieved their burdens through confessions in the love of Jesus. It is a wonderful testimony on how good marriage is in God.
